

Becky Weddle, CPCU Joins WKF&C Agency, Inc. of California

Melville, New York... Thomas J. Kennedy, President and CEO of WKF&C Agency, Inc. has announced that Becky Weddle, CPCU has joined the WKF&C team in the Southern California office. In her role as Senior Vice President, she will work closely with Dawn D'Onofrio in the Northern California office to bring the WKF&C's full product capabilities to the Western states for this national MGA. Responsible for all activities for the Southern California office, she will be handling both new and renewal business.

According to Mr. Kennedy, "Becky's impressive multi-line underwriting experience parallels our core markets. I am confident she will be very instrumental in both growing our operations and servicing our brokers in Southern California. Her background greatly enhances the breadth of experience and service our firm offers to our wholesale brokerage community."

ABOUT BECKY WEDDLE

Becky joins the WKF&C organization with more than twenty years experience in the industry. She began her career in the 1980s as an Underwriting Trainee at Sayre & Toso in Los Angeles, CA. Throughout her career, she has been responsible for handling primary, excess and professional liability placements for casualty markets at Sherwood Insurance Services. When Sherwood merged with Swett & Crawford in the 1990s, Becky managed their six in-house underwriting facilities including Primary Property & Casualty, Transportation and Excess Authorities. As Senior Vice President at Swett in Woodland Hills, her team was responsible for writing over $100,000,000 in premium with one of the programs she managed. She also worked closely with Lloyd's on property risk contracts and developed a contract to cover all of the US including CAT capabilities for coastal wind and EQ. Most recently she was working as an independent Property & Casualty specialist developing a commercial property underwriting facility at NAS Insurance Services in Encino, CA.

"WKF&C is a major force in today's marketplace due to their progressive management style, scope of their product offerings and superior service," Ms. Weddle said. "It is professionally and personally rewarding to be part of such an esteemed firm."

In addition to her Bachelor of Science, Business Administration from California State University, Los Angeles, Ms. Weddle also earned her Degree in Risk & Management from The College of Insurance, Los Angeles and in 1986 received her CPCU Designation.
