

Christine Ingraham, CIC Joins WKF&C as Marketing Vice President for the New England Region

Melville, New York... Tom Wilson, President of WKF&C Agency, Inc. has announced that Christine Ingraham, CIC has joined WKF&C's leadership team as Marketing Vice President. She will be concentrating on serving the property & casualty marketing needs of agents and brokers in the New England states and will be working from the Georgetown MA regional office.

ABOUT CHRISTINE INGRAHAM, CIC

With over 20 years of insurance experience, Christine joined WKF&C in 2003 and was instrumental in expanding the specialty-contingency lines products on a national basis. While WKF&C maintains their reputation as an industry leader in the specialty lines arena, Ingraham's new focus will be marketing WKF&C's full suite of property and casualty commercial lines E & S products. Her broad range of knowledge at both carrier and brokerage levels will be an asset to new and current WKF&C clients in the New England Region.

President and CEO, Thomas Wilson comments, "Considering the number of products WKF&C now offers, we understand the benefit of an individual like Christine in a marketing role. Our long-term growth strategy requires highly skilled insurance professionals versed in all lines, especially for carved geographic regions like New England."

She is a member of the Society of Certified Insurance Counselors, Certified Risk Managers designation program and various other insurance association groups dedicated to offering the highest level of competence in agency operations.

Wilson adds, "Christine will assess needs in our brokerage community by delivering top-notch products and building strong carrier-agency relationships".
