ABOUT DAWN E. D'ONOFRIO

Dawn began her insurance career in 1989 with a regional wholesale operation. Her enthusiasm and professionalism did not go unnoticed. During the fifteen years she spent with the firm, Dawn developed a portfolio of experience ranging from underwriting, brokering, program management and sales management. She left in 2004 and her position at the time was Vice President of Underwriting and Sales. Dawn spent the next three years as the Property & Casualty manager for a national wholesaler serving California from her office in San Francisco.

Ms D'Onofrio explained her decision to join WKF&C "was easy. As one of the fastest growing companies in the industry, they offer a superior product, great people to work with and an entrepreneurial spirit that other companies talk about but rarely deliver."
